PHD EDUCATIONAL WEEK

FOCUS ON ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Strategic competences for young researchers

GENERAL LEARNING GOAL

Today the importance of Soft Skills is strongly at the center of attention of company organization and always more frequently object of analysis in recruiting and selection process of young people.

PhD Educational week – Focus on Entrepreneurship and career development for young researchers offers PhD students of Padova training activities aimed at strengthening the skills in managing, research planning communication and dissertation strategy. These are complementary skills to the technical skills and they are necessary to manage and deal with different aspects of work, to be well organized and reactive when dealing with problems or unexpected events.

In order to attend the various modules it is necessary to register through the “Phd Educational Week Focus on Entrepreneurship and career development”.
